

Wicker Park Choral Singers 2013-2014 Season

Saturday & Sunday, December 7 & 8, 2013 – Tis the Season

- December concert is "Tis the Season" - transitioning from Autumn to Winter (featuring the entire set of 7 from Tormis' Autumn Landscapes along with Debussy, Mendelssohn, Joshua Shank, and more.)

Saturday & Sunday, March 22 & 23, 2014 – Martin and his Muses

- Frank Martin's Mass will be the feature of the second half of the program with the first half featuring earlier music that represents his inspiration for becoming a composer and the mass itself. This concert will be done in collaboration with local early music ensemble, the Marion Consort.

Sunday, June 15, 2014 – Outdoor Performance in Wicker Park (program TBD)

Special Performance

In addition to our regular season, members of WPCS will join the community chorus under the direction of Maestro Riccardo Muti with the world-renowned Chicago Symphony Orchestra on Sept. 18th for a community concert featuring works by Brahms and Verdi. <http://cso.org/TicketsAndEvents/EventDetails.aspx?eid=6018>

Sat 12/14 - 1st Annual Caroling Event in Wicker Park

Wed 4/9 - Community Open Rehearsal at Wicker Park Lutheran Church

Sat 12/14/13 - 1st Annual Caroling Event in Wicker Park

Wed 4/9/14 - Community Open Rehearsal at Wicker Park Lutheran Church

WPCS is interested in how choral music relates to community. This is why we will be leading a caroling sing-along in Wicker Park this year in December, hosting an open community rehearsal in April, and plan to sing more outdoor performances in June. We hope to build happier and healthier communities by making choral music a part of everyday life.
